Executive Proclamation
Office of the Governor

Whereas, South Dakota was founded with hard work, perseverance, dedication to duty and concern for one's fellow man; and,

Whereas, Janice Cleland began her employment with the Department of Labor on December 5, 1972, as a senior clerk with Accounting, transferring to Overpayments as a secretary, then promoted to senior claims examiner, and in her current position serves as a tax program representative in Benefit Payment Control; and,

Whereas, Janice has always been regarded by her co-workers as an amazing woman, dedicated to her job, highly respected, and well liked by all who are lucky enough to know her; and,

Whereas, Janice will retire from the Department of Labor after 32 years of service to the state on September 8, 2005, which will allow her to enjoy more time with Dennis, her husband of 40 years; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper as Governor to make special note of this outstanding South Dakotan on this momentous occasion:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim September 8, 2005, as in South Dakota, and I join with her colleagues, family, and friends in wishing her a happy and healthy retirement.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Seventh Day of September in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Five.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State
